-PRESS RELEASE-

Patrick Mayard joins the judging committee at Concordia University for the Bell Science & Technology Fair.

For the 50th anniversary of the Bell Science and Technology fair taking place at Concordia University, Patrick Mayard brings his contribution to the grandiose event with the title of judge. In fact, within a group of more than 100 professional judges, he has the responsibility of evaluating projects in the categories of physical science, geophysics, biophysics and chemistry. More than 200 projects were submitted for this scientific exposition and a record number of students from Montreal, Laval and Longueuil have registered.

Patrick Mayard is proud to contribute to the development of the next generation of scientists and leaders. The opening ceremony will take place March 21 at 12:45 pm with Marc Garneau, former astronaut of the Canadian Space Agency. Parents and friends of all the participants are welcome at this event.
